What is the general nature of this matter?

A criminal conspiracy to manufacture police interest in my home has been carried out by persons unknown. The motive of the people who have created this situation is a mystery to me, but I am confident that a series of bogus calls were made by "concerned citizens". They have no respect for LCPD's time, and you are wasting resources staking my home out. If you are going to watch, watch 24/7 and catch these fraudulent creeps. I am a retired veteran and I keep to myself. The VA pays me well and I have no interest in interacting with street trash. If allegations are made against me, feel free to ask for evidence from my CCTV system and I will happily comply.

How long do you think this problem has been going on?

1 to 3 months

How did you become aware of this violation?

It happened to me

Case Details:

A bearded Caucasian homeless male frequented my street for three days in a row. He always threw trash in my yard and poked around like he was picking things up. I have a wall to keep the homeless away from my house, so I just stay inside. I have a healthy respect for the danger these people can pose after what happened to Officer Hernandez.

A 20-something Hispanic female follows him at a distance, recording him with her phone.

Someone in a blue/green Jeep parks across the street to record this as well.

Immediately after this strange behavior by people unknown to me, unfamiliar cars began to park all around my house at all hours. I assume these are detectives. If you are going to waste your time on this endeavor, you should stake my house out 24/7, because weirdos don't come around when you're watching!
